The Saturday night Gala--located at the big bend in our Long and Winding Road—does not require prom gowns and polyester tuxedos.

We are 51 years traveled from our images in the Anchor Annual, but we can still see our 17-year-old, clunky, cocky, clueless, anxious, goofy selves in each other. And that’s the beauty of our 50th + 1 high school reunion. We really have arrived at that place in the road where we are older, but not old. It will be so good to re-connect and remember. And put arms around each other for then, now and the
